

Little Hope For Atcheson After Pacific Plane Crash

Honolulu, Aug. 18 (AP)—Probing by searchlights, surface ships continued their search early today for Ambassador George Atcheson, Jr., and four other victims of an army plane crash, but chances of their surviving more than 24 hours in a rough sea were so slender that almost no hope remained of finding them alive.

An air search on a reduced scale was set to resume at daylight, however.

Three ranking officers from General MacArthur's strategic and operations staff also were among ten passengers and crewmen lost when the B-17, inbound from Tokyo, crashed into shark-infested waters after running out of gasoline only 65 miles west of Pearl Harbor.

Treaty Work Goes On
Diplomatic sources in Washington said that despite Atcheson's vast knowledge of Japanese problems his apparent death probably would not delay arrangements for drawing up the peace treaty with Japan. Preparations for writing a preliminary draft already are well advanced, they said.

Atcheson, who represented the United States at Pacific four-power conferences and many other vital meetings since the occupation of Japan, was en route to Washington, accompanied by a small, expert staff of key army officers, to discuss preliminaries to a Japanese peace treaty, high on the list of American diplomatic objectives.

There were eight crew members and five passengers aboard the converted B-17 when the bomber ran out of gasoline and, in rough seas, made the ill-fated landing. Only three men were known to be saved. Five bodies were recovered. A sixth was sighted but sank before it could be recovered. Searchers today were trying to find the five missing, among whom was Atcheson.

Said Nothing
As the plane plunged down to its destruction, Atcheson "did not say anything; he only smiled very quietly," said one of the survivors, Col. Harvey Hugin, Fairfield, Ia.

Others rescued from the rough, shark-infested sea, dotted with bright souvenir kimonos from Japan, were:

Capt. T. L. Rider, Ponca City, Okla., of the Allied Headquarters plane detachment in Tokyo; and Army Sergeant Holland, Colmesneil, Tex. (Mrs. L. C. Holland of Colmesneil said she believed the sergeant was her son, Lee Chapman Holland, 20.) Holland suffered head injuries, Rider a broken arm, and Hugin, minor injuries.

(General MacArthur was said to be shaken by the news. Mrs. Atcheson expressed the hope the ambassador might be found alive.)

CLAIM TOWN NEEDS HELP OF TOWNSHIPS

A study of the finances of Adams county schools discloses that Gettysburg can secure its hoped for junior high school only by joining with nearby townships, Carroll Redding, chairman of the Cumberland township citizens committee, claimed today.

Redding said that the executive committee of the Cumberland school patrons group had reached that conclusion after a week-end study of the report submitted by Adams county schools to the state school commission.

That report was secured from Paul H. Wubler, executive director of a school commission at Harrisburg which was appointed several years ago.

TWO TRUCKS, CAR IN CRASH

Damage estimated by borough police at $550 resulted from a triple crash at York and Stratton streets shortly before noon today.

An automobile operated by Horace B. Billings, Haddonfield, N. J., drove out of Stratton street and was struck by a truck owned by Millhimes Farm Service, and operated by Glenn E. Millhimes, Gettysburg R. 4, police said.

A truck owned by Steele's Laundry, Hanover, which had stopped for the stop sign on Stratton street, was also struck, but damage was slight.

A pedestrian, Claude Sherman, Hanover street, was "bumped" by the New Jersey car, but told police he was not injured.

Damage to the Billings car was estimated at $300, and to the Millhimes truck, $225. Damage to the Hanover truck was placed at $25.

SEE DIFFICULTY IN FILLING JOB OF DR. BREAM

The office of the county superintendent of schools is experiencing difficulty in filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Robert A. Bream, assistant county superintendent, J. Floyd Slaybaugh, superintendent, said today.

Mr. Slaybaugh joined with others today in expressing regret that Dr. Bream is leaving. The latter has accepted a position on the faculty of Lehigh university, and will leave here September 8.

"In speaking for the officials in the office of the county superintendent of schools, we herein wish to express our appreciation for the five years of hard work and loyalty which Dr. Bream rendered and showed since 1942," Mr. Slaybaugh said in a prepared statement.

"The work was never too difficult and the hours were not too long for him to complete the job assigned."

"Right-Hand Man"
"It is without doubt that the vacancy caused by his resignation will be most difficult to fill, especially at this particular time, when we are at the beginning of another school year, and the choice people have been selected and elected ready to begin work."

"The response from teachers and directors relative to Dr. Bream's work has been commendatory. He was my right-hand man to do the job that required courage and eagerness to win the goal set out for."

"In conclusion, we as officials, regret to see Dr. Bream leave us, but we wish him success in his new field of education in connection with Lehigh university."

NEW YORK LAKES CAMPFIRE TOPIC ON SUNDAY NIGHT

More than 100 persons Sunday night saw colored slides of the Lake George and Lake Champlain section of New York state, and heard a very interesting account of the history of this area during the French and Indian wars and the Revolution given by Dr. J. Walter Coleman, superintendent of the National Park here.

The program was the fourth in the summer series of campfires on East Cemetery hill. The slides showed pictures of the Saratoga battlefield, which Dr. Coleman said was the turning point of American fortunes in the Revolutionary war, inducing France to give aid to the colonies.

Other slides showed both Lake George and Lake Champlain, a number of old forts, including Fort George and Fort Ticonderoga, and several monuments erected to revolutionary and pre-revolutionary heroes.

Strategic Section
The story of the capture of Fort Ticonderoga by Ethan Allen and his Green Mountain boys, "in the name of the Great Jehovah and the Continental Congress," was told by Dr. Coleman, along with many other interesting stories of early leaders and battles.

Dr. Coleman showed how the Hudson river, Lake George and Lake Champlain formed the water route between Canada and New York, and was sought by the British because of this connection and to cut New York and the colonies south of it off from the New England states.

He related the history of the British campaign to split the colonies by sending Burgoyne from Canada. St. Leger from the west and Howe from New York, and the failure of the campaign and American victory at Saratoga.

Two More Campfires
History in connection also with General Abercrombie, General Amherst, General Arnold, and General Schuyler was also told.

The park service plans to have at least two more campfires, Dr. Coleman said.

Next week pictures of Washington, particularly relating to Lincoln and his assassination, will be shown, including Ford's theater and the house where Lincoln died. Efforts are being made to obtain for the following Sunday night a movie of the state of Pennsylvania, showing its historical and recreational points of interest.

Gas Line Leak Is Cause Of $4,000 Fire

A large International tractor owned by Harry Kuhn, Idaville, caught fire on the Biglerville road at Sparkie's park Sunday and was completely destroyed.

The fire was discovered by a passing motorist who stopped the tractor. The Bensenville and Aspers fire companies were called but the equipment was beyond saving. The large gas tanks exploded, throwing fire over a large area.

Total loss was $4,000, partly covered by insurance.

A leak in a fuel line was given as the cause of the fire.

250 MAKE TOUR TO GRAVE OF MOTHER SETON

Approximately 250 members and friends of the Conewago Deanery Council of the National Council of Catholic Women attended the annual pilgrimage to the tomb of Mother Seton on the grounds of St. Joseph's college, Emmitsburg, Sunday.

The deanery is composed of the following parishes, all of which were represented: St. Ignatius, Buchanan Valley; St. Joseph's, Bonneville; Sacred Heart, Conewago; St. Mary's of the Immaculate Conception, Fairfield; St. Aloysius, Littlestown; St. Mary's of the Immaculate Conception, New Oxford; Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, McSherrystown; St. Francis Xavier, Gettysburg; Corpus Christi, Chambersburg, and St. Andrew's, Waynesboro.

The pilgrimage included a tour of the grounds with the Sisters of Charity as guides. An explanation of each shrine and landmark visited was given and the 15 decades of the rosary were recited by the participants as they walked from one shrine to the other.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was held in the college chapel, with the Rev. Fr. Robert Hartnett, of New Oxford parish, as celebrant. The hymns, "O Salutaris" and "Tantum Ergo" were sung by the group in the chapel and benediction closed with the solemn blessing, the recitation of the divine praises by priest and people and the traditional closing hymn, "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name." The Rev. Fr. Carl Brady, of Waynesboro and Rev. Fr. Cletus Houck, of Fairfield, were also present.

The cause for the canonization of Mother Seton has been a special project of the Conewago Deanery since its inception. Efforts to effect the canonization of Elizabeth Ann Bailey Seton, a convert to the Catholic faith and the foundress of the Sisters of Charity in America, was begun by the late James Cardinal Gibbons in the latter years of the last century and were continued by his successor as head of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, the late Michael J. Curley. Vice postulator for the cause is Rev. Salvatore M. Burgo, also head of the Mother Seton Guild. A silver collection was taken up and contributed to the guild Sunday. Should Mother Seton be canonized a saint, she would be the first native born saint in the United States and her tomb at the college will be internationally known.

2,000 INCREASE IN TAXPAYERS HERE SINCE '40

The number of tax payers in Adams county increased by nearly 2,000 from 1946 to 1947 and by over 2,000 from 1940 to 1947, according to the annual assessment report made out by Chief Assessor Clarence C. Smith for the state bureau of statistics.

The 1947 assessment sheet has just been sent by Mr. Smith to Harrisburg with the sheet for the statistics bureau made up one year late in order to be sure that the figures will be absolutely accurate and that no changes can be permitted. While assessors have made up the 1948 assessment now, that assessment still is subject to change.

The assessment figures show an increase of almost $200,000 in the county's real estate valuation during the year from 1946 to 1947. The 1946 figures are $19,445,039 while the 1947 figures are $19,628,195.

Million In New Buildings.
Smith said that most of the increase was due to new buildings constructed in the county. With the assessment basis not changed since the beginning of the war, that figure discloses approximately $1,000,000 worth of new construction.

COURT REFUSES ONE DIVORCE, GRANTS FOUR

The fact that a wife has left her husband and is living at the home of another man, and that the wife has expressed the desire to marry the other man is no grounds for divorce, the Adams county court held Saturday in an opinion handed down in the divorce action of Arthur S. Beamer, Gettysburg, against Ruby Davis Beamer, Menallen township.

In its opinion the court held that a charge of infidelity must be clearly proved, and that proof of mere opportunity without disposition, or of disposition without opportunity is not sufficient.

As a result of its findings the court went against the opinion of the master that infidelity was proven and decreed that the libel be dismissed at the cost of the libellant unless he moves to have the report referred back to the master to take additional testimony within 30 days.

Four Divorces Granted
Four decrees in divorce were granted by the court Saturday, all on charges of desertion. They were: Ruby E. DeHoff Warehime, Littlestown, from John L. Warehime, Littlestown R. D.

Margaret Virginia Bowling, New Oxford, from Edmund Nalle Bowling, Upper Marlboro, Md.

Violet B. Ray, Fairfield R. D., from Charles C. Ray, formerly of Hamilton township.

J. Edwin Gillelan, Greencastle, from Grace R. Gillelan, Greencastle.

Set Hearing Date

August 25 was set as the time for a hearing in the divorce action of J. Ralph Redding versus Nancy T. (Slonaker) Redding, Gettysburg, as a result of papers presented to the court Saturday. Following a petition from Mrs. Redding, the court ordered all proceedings stayed until after the August 25 hearing at which Redding must show cause why Mrs. Redding should not be allowed reasonable counsel fees and alimony pending a decision in the case. Mrs. Redding had petitioned the court for such aid, stating she had no personal income. Redding was also directed to show cause why he should not file a bill of particulars in his libel, after Mrs. Redding petitioned that the libel was so general she could not properly prepare a defense against it.

The court set September 15 at 10 a. m. as time for a hearing on a request of the Fairfield school board that it be permitted to sell for $100 a strip of land owned by the school district to the Fairfield Community fire company. The land adjoining the Fairfield community building recently bought by the fire company, is not used by the school district and is not usable by the district, the board said in its petition.

TRAFFIC HEAVY OVER WEEKEND

Sunday was another good day for travel on the battlefield and for battlefield guides, but was not exceptional, following the pattern of most Sundays since the early part of July. Alvin Baker, superintendent of the National cemetery, said today.

There were 168 guided trips over the battlefield Sunday, according to reports received from the guides. An estimated total of 1,344 automobiles drove over the field, and on the basis of these figures, it was estimated that battlefield tourists Sunday numbered 5,376.

"This is an average day for this summer," Mr. Baker said, "but ahead of last year." He said there had been little fluctuation in Sunday tourist travel since the first part of July, with Sunday's figures following very closely preceding Sundays.

Travel as a whole is much greater than it was last year, however, Mr. Baker said.

Battlefield travel on some weekdays has come close to or exceeded the Sunday figures, Mr. Baker said. On one day, August 12, more persons toured the field than on any recent Sunday, he added.

was $16,499,480, or over $3,000,000 less than the 1947 figure. The 1940 assessment is also based on the same assessment basis as the past year's figures.
This year there are 26,751 taxables in the county, as compared with 25,811 in 1946 and 24,606 in 1940. County officials estimated from the assessment figures that the actual real estate value of the county is $78,512,780. The assessment figures are generally 50 per cent of pre-war evaluations and the cost and price of real estate has nearly doubled in the meantime, they said.
Much Exempt Property
However only $16,185,725 of the assessed $19,628,195 is available for taxation the assessment sheet shows. There is $3,442,470 worth of real estate exempt from taxation in the county, with Gettysburg having the largest share, $2,518,300.
Exempt are such things as the college and seminary here, the battlefield, county-owned property such as the jail, poor farm, and court house, and such things as churches, schools, orphanages and the like.
Cumberland township is one of the largest losers to tax exempt property. Out of a total value of $794,940 for real estate, $166,700, most of it the battlefield, is exempt.
The value of salaries, employments for professional services and the like received by countyants is assessed at $1,544,990. The highest assessment for salaries etc., permitted is $200. Most assessments are $80 and $50.
The amount of money at interest or in mortgages, judgments, notes, and the like is listed at $3,677,689 of which $1,682,148 is listed for Gettysburg.

ago by the governor to equalize school costs throughout the state.
In July, 1946, the state commission asked all school districts to present reports on their financial condition and set-up. Adams county's report was compiled from the figures given by the various districts.
Redding said the study showed Gettysburg school district to be able to secure, as of July, 1946, $183,000 by borrowing up to its legal capacity.
That sum, the top figure the Gettysburg school district could scrape together was $167,000 short of the $350,000 estimate given in the report for a junior high school in the community. Redding said, and held that Gettysburg could build a junior high school only if it joins with other districts in a jointure, or union district.
Many Attend Meeting
Redding added that the executive committee plans to ask permission to meet with the Cumberland and Gettysburg boards this evening at their meeting in the high school here.
While some members of Gettysburg and Cumberland boards have spoken favorably of a union district, Redding said the committee is seeking a jointure because that action can be taken immediately by the two boards. A union district can be formed only by vote of the people. Under a jointure, the boards and patrons could determine how well the combined school systems work before putting the question to a vote by the people, he added.

DODGERS MEET CARDS TODAY IN SHOWDOWN

By JOE REICHLER
(AP Sports Writer)

Today was double D-Day in Brooklyn—for both the Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals.

The two top contenders were slated to meet in the first of two crucial games which could decide the National League pennant.

The Cards must win at least three out of four of the current series at Ebbets field if they are to make any dent in the Dodgers' present four and a half game cushion. The Dodgers, on the other hand, won't be satisfied with anything less than an even break.

That split or better is very vital to the Dodgers for other than the obvious reason. The remaining schedule is very much in favor of the Cards. After the Brooks have 3 games fewer to play than the Cards, 39 in all, more than half of them are against first division clubs—seven with the Cards, nine with the New York Giants and four with Boston.

Of the Cards' 42 remaining games, 17 are with the rest of the first division—seven with Brooklyn, five with New York and five with Boston. They have 17 home games left, 10 play while the Dodgers have 21. However, the Cards finish at home while the Dodgers are on the road.

Replay Protest
The night game of today's afternoon-night doubleheader is the one ordered by League President Ford Frick, coming out of his upholding of the Cards' protest over the Brooks' 3-2 victory against St. Louis last July 20. Frick declared the game a 3-3 tie, ruling Ron Northey should have been credited with a ninth inning home run instead of being declared out at home.

The Cards tightened the race yesterday by defeating the Pirates in Pittsburgh 6-5 to gain a full game on the pace-setters while the Dodgers were being shut out by Philadelphia 4-0.

Each team was forced to a no-decision contest in the second game of their doubleheaders. The Dodgers were held to a 4-4 tie in their nightcap while the Cards and Pirates engaged in a scoreless deadlock in their finale. The Dodger-Phil second game was called at the end of six innings because of Pennsylvania's 7 p. m. curfew law while rain and wet grounds halted the Cardinals game after four and a half innings.

Giants Lose Pair
The rebounding Boston Braves improved their third place standing by sweeping two games from the slipping New York Giants in Boston 2-1 and 3-1 to make it four in a row over the New Yorkers, who now have dropped seven straight. The double win moved the Braves within seven games of the top and three and a half ahead of the fourth-place Giants.

The Reds took two from the Chicago Cubs in Cincinnati, 2-0 and 11-3, as Ewell Blackwell registered his 19th victory and his sixth shut-out in the opener.

The New York Yankees had their American league first place margin cut to 12½ games when the Boston Red Sox shut them out 3-0 at the Yankee stadium in an 11-inning thriller.

The third-place Detroit Tigers split with the White Sox in Chicago, taking the second game 4-3 after losing the opener 1-0.

The Philadelphia Athletics moved within a game of the Tigers by winning two from the Senators in Washington 2-1 and 5-2.

Cleveland and the Browns divided a pair in St. Louis, the Browns winning the first game 7-6 and the Indians the second 4-3.

The Pirates set a National League record when Frank Gustine and Hank Greenberg belted home runs for a new mark of 16 home runs by one club in five games. The old one of 15 was set by the Giants in 1925.

Vandergrift Sure Of League Title

(By The Associated Press)
With only two more weeks of the regular season remaining the Vandergrift Pioneers seem assured of the top spot in the middle Atlantic League.

At the moment the Pioneers boast a 6½ game edge over the second-place Erie Sailors, and a 7½ game margin over third-place Niagara Falls. Oil City is holding down fourth place, 10½ games off the pace while Butler is fifth and 13 back. Next is Youngstown, 16 out of first. Then comes Uniontown 21 games away, followed by Johnstown which is in the cellar and 21½ games from the Pioneers.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)
Pitching, Denny Galehouse, Red Sox—Held the Yankee sluggers to six hits in 11 innings in outpitching Rookie Star Vic Raschi's first defeat after six straight triumphs.

Batting, Bob Elliott, Braves—Made two hits in each game in double victory over the Giants 2-1 and 3-1. He drove in what proved to be the winning run in the opener and knocked in two runs and scored the other in the nightcap. In all, he was responsible for four of his team's five runs.

New Oxford retained its undisputed leadership in the second half race of the Adams County Baseball league by nosing out McSherrystown 7-6 at New Oxford Saturday afternoon.

Gettysburg scored its third win in the second half by edging Littlestown 5-2 on the local field, rain halting play in the seventh inning.

Littlestown tabbed a pair of runs in the second inning on singles by Worley and Horner, and an error. Gettysburg came back with a run on Anzengruber's walk and hits by Staley and Snider. In the fourth the locals sewed up the contest with three tallies. Johnson was hit by a pitched ball, Ulrich singled, Anzengruber was safe on an error and Hankey and Rohrbaugh followed with hits.

Hurls Well
"Spike" Snider, Gettysburg hurler, pitched himself out of a hole in the sixth when Littlestown filled the bases on singles by Kress and Mehring and an error with none out. However, Snider bore down and prevented a tally. Bobby Ray Knox's catch of Strine's long fly in the third featured the defensive play.

Orrtanna took over undisputed second place by upsetting Bendersville 4-2 at Bendersville. Bendersville scored in the first inning on a walk to Baumgardner, a wild pitch, an infield out and a single. Orrtanna tallied a run in the third on a single by J. Wetzel, a stolen base and single by H. Deardorff. The game was clinched in the fifth with three runs on a hit by J. Deardorff, a sacrifice by J. Wetzel, singles by H. Deardorff and L. Wetzel, and a double by C. Rebert. The victory was the sixth in a row for Orrtanna and the fourth straight for "Piney" Rebert, Orrtanna hurler.

Win In Ninth
New Oxford tabbed four runs in the eighth and one in the ninth to gain its win. The winning run came after Haar grounded out. Rodney Staub poled a double, his fourth hit, Wagner was intentionally passed and then Carbaugh singled Staub home with the winning run. Staub, believed to be the leading hitter of the league, boosted his average to .88, having connected for 39 hits in 43 games at bat.

Arendtsville upset Fairfield 8-2 with "Junie" Walters hurling steady ball throughout. Cease and McClain formed the battery for Fairfield.

In the remaining game Hanover outslugged Emmitsburg to gain a 10-5 decision at Emmitsburg.

MANY SCHOOLS OPEN FOOTBALL TRAINING TODAY

BY TOM SHRIVER
Harrisburg, Aug. 18 (AP)—Pre-season football practice for many of Pennsylvania's high school eleven opened today at camps or on the home fields of school that had adequate facilities for training future all-Americans.

Under the rules of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association all schools must provide three weeks of intensive training. The first date on which games are allowed under PIAA edict is Sept. 5 and most of the teams that started work today plan games on the earliest possible date.

Many coaches have changed schools during the off season, or newcomers have been assigned to the work of directing the youthful gridders in their practice drills and through the regular season or independent campaigns.

Important Shifts
Notable among these changes is the shift of Elmer E. Carroll from Easton high to Abington high, one of the most sports-minded of the many schools in Philadelphia's suburbs. Replacing Carroll at Easton will be Frank J. O'Hara (CQ) former football star at Pennsylvania State college.

Another shift that attracted considerable interest was the signing of Mike Terry as grid mentor at Mt. Carmel high. For years Terry had directed the destinies of Kulpmont high and during that three years watched his charges go through 27 straight games without a setback. Although tied by Berwick after winning 25 in a row.

Jerry Frock, former Lebanon Valley college gridiron mentor, returns to scholastic ranks as varsity coach at Hershey high school, one of the state's few undefeated eleven in 1946. Peck McKnight, who drove the Hershey boys to an unbeaten season, moves up to the post of assistant grid coach at Indiana State teachers college.

Vince Chimento, whose Hollidaysburg high eleven halted state college high's 20 game winning streak, make a short but significant jump when he was named successor to Ken Meloy at Huntingdon. Bill Scott, former Juniata college athlete, who has coached at Clearfield, Fernside, and Johnstown, replaced Chimento at Hollidaysburg.

Other Changes
Other changes in the central part of the state found W. R. South Penn League Tilts

Barlow and Bonneville evened up their semi-final series for the championship of the South Penn baseball league by scoring victories in Sunday's games.

Barlow nosed out Cashtown 6-4 at Barlow to tie up the series at one game apiece. Cashtown rallied for two runs in the top half of the ninth but could not pull the game from the fire.

Pacing the winner's attack was Durborow with three hits including a double and homerun.

Bonneville came from behind to upset Heidlersburg in a see-saw affair at Heidlersburg, 7-6, a two-run rally in the final inning turning the trick.

Chrimer and Topper divided the hurling for Bonneville with the latter receiving credit for the decision. Slaybaugh pitched for Heidlersburg.

The final games of the semi-final series will be played next Sunday afternoon. Arrangements have been completed for Bonneville and Heidlersburg to clash on the Arendtsville diamond. The site for the Cashtown-Barlow tilt has not been determined.

RECORD ENTRY IN TRAP SHOOT

Vandalia, O., Aug. 18 (AP)—The biggest boom since the atom bomb blast at Bikini will sweep across Ohio's Miami Valley today when the 48th grand American trapshoot gets under way. Seven championships will be settled before night-fall.

With 736 shooters from 41 states, three Canadian Provinces, Cuba, and the Canal Zone participating in yesterday's final tuneup for the roaring grand, indications were that all entry records would be erased in the six-day bombardment of clay flying discs. Last year the preliminary finale drew 652.

Today's events, all at 16 yards over the 100-target route, were to determine championships among veterans 70 years and over, husband-wife two-somes, juniors under 18, sub-juniors under 15, father-son or father-daughter combinations, and winners among women and men state title holders.

Legionnaires Lose To Charles Town 6-2

The Gettysburg Legion baseball team of the Adams County league lost an exhibition game at Charles Town, W. Va., Sunday afternoon 6-2.

A four-run rally in the eighth inning gave the Charles Town out to fit the victory. Charles Town tabbed a pair of runs in the second inning and held the locals scoreless until the ninth. Gettysburg secured five hits off Barker, two of which were pounded out by Bobby Knox. Lawver and F. Knox permitted the victors six hits.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

The new Minister of Foreign Affairs in Mexico, has published two important documents, denying that the government has any understanding with Americans, or that it has any plans in preparation for peace—that the whole civilized world favors Mexico—and that the U. States cannot triumph except through the internal dissensions of the Republic!

Removal: Esaias J. Culp respectfully informs his friends and customers that he has removed his Tailoring Establishment to the room formerly occupied by Wm. Bell, deceased, opposite Wampler's Tinnery, in Baltimore street, where he will be pleased to attend to the orders of all who wish to have work done up in fashionable style and at low rates. Arrangements have been made to receive the latest fashions from Philadelphia and New York.

Country produce will be taken in exchange for work.

Locofoco Ticket: The Locofoco County Convention assembled in the Court-house on Monday, and placed the following ticket in nomination: Assembly—James Patterson. Commissioner—Jacob Refensperger.

Director—Garret Brinkerhoff. Auditor—William Yeatts. Treasurer—George Shryock.

Henry Clay was at Cape May for a week. He left on Monday for the White Sulphur Springs in Virginia.

Emigration is still pouring into New York with undiminished fury. No less than 10,690 passengers arrived week before last, and the number would have increased if several vessels which were due had arrived.

The number of passengers arrived at Quarantine ground, New York, from April 2d to the 15th of August, is 105,761.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The lively men have been doing a rushing business the past month, some days is being impossible to obtain a team at any price. As the proprietors of the different establishments are a clever set of men, and keep the best stock obtainable, it is right they should be liberally patronized.

Absent: The editor of the "Star and Sentinel" has concluded to take a little recreation and left home on Wednesday. He will be absent for several weeks. In the meantime we will do our best to have the machinery run smoothly until his return. As we happen to know the "boss" in leaving, was somewhat concerned about several heavy paper bills to fall due shortly, we should like to have the pleasure of realizing sufficient money during his absence to square them off. This will make him feel good on his return, and we feel satisfied all the patrons of the office would like to help do it. Send in the money promptly, friends, within the next two weeks.

Married: Marshall—Musselman: At New Oxford, Pa., on the 13th of August, 1872, by Rev. E. S. Johnston, of Emmitsburg, Md., Mr. John K. Marshall to Miss Martha S. Musselman, both of Hamilton township.

Grant and Wilson Club:—The friends of Grant and Wilson organized a campaign club, in this place on Friday evening, the 16th inst. There was a large attendance despite the unpleasant evening. A temporary organization was effected by calling Hon. S. R. Russell to the chair and appointing J. A. Kitzmiller, Esq., Secretary. After the object of the meeting had been stated by J. M. Krauth, Esq., a constitution and by-laws were adopted. Under the constitution the following officers were elected for the campaign:

President—J. M. Krauth.

Vice President—M. W. Jacobs.

TEEN-AGE NIGHT CLUBS

Mr. Frank E. Gannett, the Rochester, N. Y., publisher, has presented to America a unique club for the Teen-Agers. One where wholesome fun can be had, dancing, and a good time by all—but no liquor—just soft drinks—and a club that is run by the youths themselves—at a nominal individual entrance cost of but fifty cents!

There are music and entertainment, and nothing dull about the evenings spent at this club, which is called the Gannett Youth Club Barn, and is located a few miles out of Rochester, so as to give it a beautiful country flavor. It's really a combination night club and country club, and initiated by Mr. Gannett so as to give young people a chance to enjoy wholesome entertainment in a clean atmosphere.

The club is a notable success, and is inspiring many other cities to follow suit. Mr. Gannett invested $30,000 in this first experiment, but he feels that it is one of the greatest investments he has ever made in personal joy and satisfaction. Governor Dewey of New York, has said: "The club should be a great force for good in the ever-continuing fight all of us are waging to halt the spread of juvenile delinquency."

The Barn itself is a beautiful large quonset-type structure, insulated and air conditioned. It has a bar—but only soft drinks are served. It has a Board of Governors, too, composed of the presidents of the student councils of each high school in the county. It establishes policies and sets up rules. The Board members plan the shows, engage musical talent, and other entertainment, and arrange the dance bands. The small admission charge is merely to pay the entertainment costs.

Mr. Gannett's donation to the youth of his city should inspire many others to follow in his steps. Certainly no better investment in future citizenship could possibly be made. Every city—and even the smaller communities—should think this matter over, and not just think, but act, as Mr. Gannett did—and get the thing done! A practical way to a better and happier world.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Self-Serving Guests."

LUCKIEST BABY

We grownups have a standard to divide the poor from rich. By their labors and possessions we discover which is which. But the fortune of a baby is a harder state to guess. For we cannot always tell it by the bonnet or the dress. So, the baby with a brother and a sister seems to me The richest sort of baby I shall ever live to see.

Now a baby's needs not always can with money be supplied. Nor by parents most devoted, plus the grandfolks on the side. There's the walking and the playing and the curious bits of speech. And the countless joys of childhood only other children teach. Thus, the luckiest of babies on the lengthy cradle list is the one that has a brother and a sister to assist.

It will learn its lesson faster than the one with just a nurse. And I'm sure a little sooner Mother Goose it will rehearse. It has freedom very precious that so often is denied To the solitary infant to its mother's apron tied. So, the baby with a brother and a sister, I submit, For the life that's just beginning has a bit the best of it.

Onion Harvest And Storage

Despite over-production theories to the contrary, American housewives have rarely found more than a bare "enough" onions in the nation's pantry to meet normal consumption requirements. In numerous years we have been on an import basis for this crop. And it remains fresh in the minds of many citizens when an onion was an object of admiration in the grocery basket. Therefore, this year's crop, already endangered by wet weather in many parts of the country, should be carefully protected and harvested and then stored with precautions to keep storage losses at a minimum.

An onion's keeping quality depends largely on how it is attended during the last two or three weeks of its growing season. To mature fully an onion must have all-day access to sunshine and free circulation of air. Such an environment dries out the ripening top and eliminates the moisture of the neck. In commercial growing circles an improperly cured onion is called a "soft neck." It is actually a bulb with the neck still soft and green. Of course, "soft necks" will not keep well in storage. They not only rot themselves, but they spread decay to otherwise properly cured onions.

The major cause of soft neck onions is found in failure of growers to keep weeds eradicated during the final weeks of the growing season and particularly while onions are ripening and their tops are dying and drying. Weeds and grass keep the soil surface moist, shade the necks from sun and prevent free passage of air among the tops.

Onions should be dug on a sunny day and spread in windrows to dry. It is wise to turn them once or twice to permit all surface moisture to escape. They may remain over to obtain the drying-off benefits of a second day of exposure to sun and air if there are no dangers of rain.

To avoid extra handling, onions should be placed in their storage containers in the field. Slat crates are recommended to facilitate free passage of air among the bulbs in storage. The dry tops should be twisted off or cut off with shears and the outer loose husks rubbed off.

How can the grower know when an onion is properly ripened to dig and store?

Commercial growers answer this question by sound. They say an onion fully matured and ready to go into safe storage has a dead top and the neck is shriveled and dry. Such an onion, say these experienced growers, "rattles" when poured with its fellow onions from one container into another.

Cold and dry describes the proper storage surroundings for well matured onions. Of course, for the first few weeks after storing onions should have the benefits of free air circulation. The crates should be piled so air passes beneath and around them during this drying period. There is no substitute for free and ample ventilation of the storage room for the next week to three weeks storage.

Thereafter a storage room temperature just above freezing is best for onions. However, home supplies may be stored safely in any dry room, such as a basement or attic.

"Soft necks" should be kept separate at harvest time for immediate use.

NEW HONORS FOR GUARD AT SUNDAY REVIEW

LEONARD A. UNGER
Indianapolis Gap, Aug. 18 (AP)—The Pennsylvania National Guard returned to another week of grueling field training today inspired by new battle honors presented in a colorful Governor's Day review.

Two of the 149 units participating in the 15 day first postwar encampment, carried new streamers on their standards, a Presidential citation for "extraordinary heroism" in the battle of Ardennes during World War II.

The presentation, highspot of a parade here yesterday of the Commonwealth's military might by the PNC's nearly 6,000 officers and men, was made to the 112th infantry regiment of Erie and 229th field artillery battalion, of New Castle, then combined as the 112th regimental combat team, the outfit which captured more than 200 German prisoners under heavy enemy fire in the fateful battle of the Bulge in December 1944.

Duff Speaks
Cloudy skies failed to detract from the review which saw raw recruits join with combat toughened veterans in honoring Gov. James H. Duff, their commander-in-chief.

"In behalf of the citizens of this great Commonwealth I want to express my gratitude for the great service you are rendering," he told the huge formation of guardsmen in the presence of 7,500 spectators.

Shortly after he entered the reviewing stand to the reverberation of a 19-gun salute, the Governor presented new colors and standards to the 149 units participating in the encampment.

Lauded By Martin
Purchased by the society of the 28th division, the colors were received by Brig. Gen. Charles Curtis, of Allentown, commanding the encampment and reviewing officer of the parade.

"We will guard them well," said Brig. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler, Lancaster, commander of the 28th division and of the marching troops who joined in the response. Afterwards, Duff personally inspected the formation which included the 28th division, the 51st anti-aircraft brigade and the 11th regimental combat team.

U. S. Senator Edward Martin, former Pennsylvania Governor and onetime commander of the 28th division, lauded the troops for voluntarily serving the Commonwealth.

TED SCHROEDER SINGLES CHAMP

Newport, R. I., Aug. 18 (AP)—Ted Schroeder of Glendale, Calif., held the singles championship of the Newport tennis tournament today and doubles stars were the new team of Gardner Mulloy and Frank Parker who defeated Jack Kramer of Los Angeles and Schroeder as the latter showed the grind of a 110-game day.

Schroeder showed brilliant form in taking singles honors against the steady playing of Bill Talbert of Wilmington, Del., 6-3, 6-3, 7-5, 6-4. But the wear of his many games showed when he and his Davis cup mate, Kramer, faced the slam-bang attack of Mulloy and Parker who stopped them, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3, 6-1.

Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., and Parker, of Los Angeles, had teamed in only one previous tournament and their win upped Parker's Davis cup appointment chances in the opinion of the team's non-playing captain, Alrick H. Man, Jr.

Man makes his Casino report today to the selection committee in New York.

YORK BOY WINS HEAT IN DERBY

Akron, O., Aug. 18 (AP)—Eleven Pennsylvanians were among the place winning contestants in the 10th running of the all-American soap box derby here.

Blenn Wilt, York, finished first in heat No. 1 and second in heat 46. Ronald Darby, Scranton, finished second in heat No. 8. Harry Anderson, Erie, was first in heat No. 9 and second in heat 49.

COLLEGE HEAD DIES SUDDENLY

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 18 (AP) — Dr. Joseph M. Uhler, veteran educator and president of Indiana (Pa.) State Teachers' college, died last night of a heart attack while attending the wedding of a niece here.

He was pronounced dead at Memorial hospital where he was rushed after collapsing at the wedding reception. Dr. Andrew Stropko, deputy Cambria county coroner, said death was caused by a heart ailment.

A native of Elizabeth, Pa., Dr. Uhler had been president of the Indiana college since 1942. Prior to that he had served as college dean of instruction.

The 66-year-old educator was a graduate of Shippensburg State Teachers' college. He also attended Franklin & Marshall, Dickinson and the University of Wisconsin. He received his doctorate degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

He began his career as supervising principal of the Cresson, Pa. schools in 1907 and later served as principal of the Conemaugh high school. He became superintendent of the Conemaugh schools in 1918, remaining there until he joined the Indiana State Teachers' faculty in 1925.

The body was taken to Indiana, Pa., funeral plans are still incomplete.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Naomi Dohner Uhler, and four children, Ray of Bradford, Pa., Lowell, a student at Cornell university. Mrs. Richard Thomas of Detroit, and Helen, of Indiana.

NEW RUSSIAN VETOES AHEAD ON ADMISSIONS

Lake Success, Aug. 18 (AP)—The Security Council today headed into a batch of Russian vetoes blocking the admission of new members to the United Nations.

Delegates were summoned (3 p. m., EDT) to consider 12 applications, but only Yemen and newly-created Pakistan appeared likely to be accepted into the 55-nation organization.

Russia has served notice that she will again blackball Ireland, Portugal and Trans-Jordan. Italy and Austria also faced a possible Soviet veto if they drew the necessary seven votes for passage. The Russian veto total in the U. N. is now 11.

Some Lack Support

The other five countries apparently lacked enough support to be taken in. Of these the western powers are opposing Soviet-sponsored Albania and Outer Mongolia, which were rejected in 1946, and there has been no outright backing for Hungary, Bulgaria and Romania, whose peace treaties await ratification by Moscow.

Legal technicalities complicated consideration of Italy and Austria. Russia maintains they cannot be taken up until the peace pacts are concluded. The Italian treaty is being held in the Kremlin for ratification and the Austria pact has not been drafted. Both Italy and Austria carry strong support from the United States but there still was doubt whether the council would be ready to vote on them in view of the treaty situation.

Syria wants to admit all 12 with one vote, but such a proposal was given virtually no chance for passage in view of the firm stand taken by Russia and other delegations on some applications.

West Virginia Boy Is 'Soap Box' Champ

Akron, O., Aug. 18 (AP)—Loaded down with "good luck" charms, 14-year-old Kenny Holmboe of Charleston, W. Va., today was the smiling king of the country's juvenile race drivers and 1947 all-American soapbox derby champion.

Kenny's pockets bulged with a four-leaf clover, a rabbit's foot and a "lucky" penny when he piloted his streamlined racer to victory over 134 competitors yesterday, earning a first prize award of a four-year college scholarship before an estimated 75,000 derby spectators.

Kenny was the "early bird" of entrants when he became the first out-of-town driver to register for the soapbox classic last Wednesday. He flew here in the private plane of West Virginia's Gov. Clarence W. Meadows. His time for the 97-foot incline was 26.7 seconds.

The five-foot, nine-inch Charleston youth, who plans to attend Morris-Harvey college in his home town on the $2,000 scholarship, was a star pupil of B. M. (Mr. Derby) Higginbotham, who conducts an annual soapbox racer clinic for West Virginia entrants.

Jews On Shipboard On Hunger Strike

Paris, Aug. 18 (AP)—A hunger strike began today among the 4,500 Jews aboard three British deportation ships at Port-de-Bouc, the French news agency reported.

A dispatch said food was sent back ashore after it had been taken aboard the ships by the social help organization, Entreeid Francaise.

The Jews were returned to French waters after the ship, the Exodus 1947, was intercepted and rammed by the British off Palestine. They have refused to go ashore at Port-de-Bouc.

Public Assistance Load Up Since '45

Harrisburg, Aug. 18 (AP)—Pennsylvania's public assistance load has increased 48 per cent in the two years since V-J Day, and relief payments have risen 60 per cent, the Department of Public Assistance reported.

Frank A. Robbins, Jr., department secretary cited displacement of marginally employable persons from their war time jobs, and rising cost of living, as mainly responsible for the increases.

The high cost of living has made it virtually impossible for many small income groups to support themselves without additional aid, he pointed out, adding:

"The increase in average payment to assistance recipients has not kept step with a 20 per cent rise in cost of living despite the fact that allowances were increased during 1946."

NEW LOAN PLAN IS DISCARDED

Washington, Aug. 18 (AP)—The issue of a new American loan went into the discard by agreement today as top-rank financial experts from both sides of the Atlantic assembled to hunt a partial solution to Britain's dollar crisis.

Sir Wilfrid Eady, head of the British delegation, said that so far as his country is concerned a new credit to supplement the almost-exhausted $3,750,000,000 advance of 1946 is "not on the agenda."

That made it mutual.

American officials have emphasized that they will talk about modifying the present loan agreement to relieve Britain's economic distress, but will go no further.

And they said Secretary of the Treasury Snyder, chief United States negotiator, would enter the treasury's conference room ready to make these demands:

1. That the British account for the spending which has drained all but $850,000,000 of the year-old drawing account, with its exhaustion foreseen this fall.
2. That England outline specific plans for balancing its budget, speeding production and achieving a balance of trade that will contribute to world-wide economic stability.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)

The Albany Senators, still rated as having a chance to overcome Utica in the Eastern league race, were six games behind the pace-setting Blue Sox today with about three weeks left in the season.

The Senators clipped a half-game from the league-leaders' margin by taking two games from the cellar-dwelling Elmira Pioneers yesterday, 16-0 and 9-0, while the Blue Sox were winning a single game from the Scranton Miners, 18-10.

The Binghamton Triplets won the opener of a three-game series with Wilkes-Barre, 8-4, and the Hartford Chiefs trounced the Williamsport Tigers, 25-3, in the first game and added a 5-3 triumph in the nightcap.

KINER IS AMONG GAME'S GREAT FOR LONG HITS

By ELAINE KAHN

Pittsburgh, Aug. 18 (AP)—Ralph Kiner is only a sophomore in the major leagues but his home run antics of the past few days have served to link his name with such baseball greats as Babe Ruth, Tony Lazzeri and Lou Gehrig.

With 35 homers to his credit in 115 games this season, Kiner is just three behind Ruth's pace in his record-breaking year of 1927 when the bambino hit 60.

Hank Greenberg, who hit 58 four-baggers himself in 1938 and therefore ought to know, declares of his teammate:

"Ralph is about as good a long-distance hitter as there is around today. He is young and has his whole future in front of him. He may turn out to be the greatest hitter in the game."

The 25-year-old Kiner has been dogging the heels of Johnny Mize, currently the league's home run leader, all season, but he didn't really get hot until last Friday. Now he trails Mize by just one round tripper.

Five in Two Days

He knocked out a pair of home runs in Friday's night tilt with the St. Louis Cardinals and hopped on the Red Bird hurlers for three more Saturday. Records got tied up like a party line.

- Briefly, he:
1. Tied the major league record of four home runs in consecutive games at bat first set by Bobby Lowe of the Boston Nationals in 1894 and equaled by such illustrious diamond players as Gehrig and Jimmy Foxx.
 2. Tied the major league record of five homers in two consecutive games established by Cap Anson of the Chicago Cubs in 1884 and tied by Ty Cobb and Lazzeri.
 3. Tied the major league record of six homers in three games set in 1936 by Lazzeri.
 4. Tied the major league record of seven homers in four games, also set by Lazzeri in 1936.
 5. Set a new national league record of five homers in two games, six homers in three games and seven homers in four games.

Led Loop Last Year

The tall, rangy player gave a hint of what was to come last year when he smashed out 23 home runs to lead the senior loop. He was the first freshman to cop the title since Harry Lumley did it for Brooklyn in 1904 with nine.

DURING THE PEACH HARVEST — PLEASE KEEP ALL TELEPHONE CALLS BRIEF!

Harvest of Adams County's famous peach crop is under way. With the annual immigration of pickers, brokers and truckers into the fruit belt, the volume of long distance telephone calls increases tremendously.

This year, harvest calls must be handled over facilities already taxed to capacity. Unless telephone users limit their use of the telephone during the next several weeks to essential calls only, there will be unavoidable delays on all telephone calls.

You can do your part towards marketing this perishable fruit crop by making only necessary telephone calls. With your cooperation most calls will go through promptly. However, if you pick up your telephone and the operator doesn't answer immediately, it means the switchboard is working at full capacity. The operator knows you are waiting and she'll answer your signal as soon as possible.

During "Fruit Season" make as few calls as possible and keep those calls brief.

90 Miners' Bodies Found; 14 Missing

Whitehaven, Eng., Aug. 18 (AP)—The national coal board said today 90 bodies had been located in the blasted undersea William coal mine and no hope was held for 14 miners still unaccounted for.

A hundred seventeen men were in the shaft when an unexplained explosion occurred late Friday. Thirteen were saved. Sixty-nine of the bodies have been brought to the surface.

Board officials ordered a 10-hour rest last night for rescue crews that had worked unrelentingly to reach entombed miners, but the crews re-entered the mine today to search for the rest of the victims.

Meanwhile, this Cumberland county town on Solway Firth prepared for a week of funerals beginning tomorrow or Wednesday. Some 40 miners were assigned to help eight gravediggers prepare burial plots. Hearses kept up a steady procession out of a temporary mortuary in mine yard.

school, he attracted the attention of Pirate scouts and was named to Albany of the Eastern league in 1941. After two big seasons there, he was moved up to Toronto of the International league but played only 43 games before he was called into the navy air service.

He was discharged in December, 1945, and joined the Pirates in spring training. Since then he has made baseball history.

Kiner got off to a slow start this year but began to pick up in mid-season. He attributes his improvement to the batting advice given him by Greenberg.

Nobody is prouder of his protege than Big Hank.

"Yes sir, Mr. Kiner is a tremendous ball player," says Greenberg, echoing the sentiments of the Pirate owners and fans alike.

GOVERNMENT OPENS FIGHT ON STEEL PRICE

Washington, Aug. 18 (AP)—The government opened its slugging match against high prices today and picked a heavyweight antagonist—the steel industry.

In a "cease and desist" action, the Federal Trade Commission charged the nation's steelmakers with a conspiracy to fix prices and stifle competition.

The complaint filed last night contended that illegal collusion on pricing is fostered by the American Iron and Steel Institute of New York and all of its more than 100 members, including the giant United States Steel corporation. There was no immediate industry comment.

Don't Expect Duplication

The FTC declared that by "destroying price competition" steel producers are able to "dominate and manipulate the markets in which their unorganized customers and consumers must buy."

The action immediately raised the question: Will the Justice Department, in its newly announced investigation of food, clothing and housing prices, seek anti-trust action against steel because of its importance in construction costs?

FTC officials said privately they believe not because "we and the Justice Department try to avoid duplication."

The FTC complaint came only a month after industry-wide price increases ranging around $5 to $7 a ton. In ordering them into effect, the industry ignored President Truman's request that it "wait and see" whether the coal wage settlement made price boosts necessary.

To Appear September 19

All the defendants were instructed to appear for hearing September 19 and were allowed 20 days to file answers. After hearings the commission may order the pricing practices halted within 60 days.

Such an order—equivalent to an injunction and subject to appeal—is enforceable in the courts. The maximum penalty for violation is a $5,000 fine.

FTC's complaint strikes hardest at the "basing point" system of pricing. The government said it makes the delivered price of steel to a consumer identical, regardless of the length of freight haul, and enables the industry to operate "as though all mills were under one ownership and control."

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our mother who passed away eleven years ago today, August 18, and father, November 8, 1946. Mr. and Mrs. William Yohe.

Sweet to remember them who once were dear and who though absent are just as dear. We do not forget them nor do we intend, we think of them often and will to the end.

Their memory is as dear today as in the hour they passed away. We did our best, God knew to ease their pains which were not few. To know their precious worth, soothe them in their hour of pain, be gentle and smile. How sweet will it be for you to think I have been a faithful child.

Oh dear father and mother how we miss you, how we miss your loving smile. And the kiss and the hand shake when we'd gather for awhile. Peaceful be thy silent slumber, peaceful in the graves so low. Thou no more will join our number, thou no more our sorrows know. Sadly missed by daughter, Mrs. H. G. Haverstock and family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of mother, Mrs. Charlotte B. Yohe, who passed away August 18, 1936.

Eleven years have passed Since that sad day The one I loved was called away. God took you home, it was his will.

But in my heart you liveth still. Dear mother you are not forgotten. Though on earth you are no more, Still in memory you are with me. As you always were before. Sadly missed by foster daughter, Viola E. Herman.

TROUBLE SHOOTER

BY CAMERON DOCKERY

Chapter 15

Doug was sunk in sleep when the phone rang. It had been a dreamless sleep brought on by the afternoon of fresh air and sunshine, bodily weariness and mental satisfaction that the friendship of the other loggers had engendered. The shrill demanding tinkle of the phone shattered it as rudely as though one of the lumberjack's steel-caulked boots had come down on his face.

He was nearest to it and he swung his long legs out of the bunk cursing drowsily. The big alarm clock with the radi, a numerals was on the table beneath the phone; he glanced at it absently. Three forty.

Three forty! Three forty in the morning! Why would anyone be calling the bunkhouse now? His hand fumbled for the receiver and found it. Elsa's voice came over the wire as though from a great distance.

"Bill? Is that you?"

"Andrews speaking. Hardin isn't here, Elsa."

"He isn't?" For a moment she sounded strained, disappointed, then.

"Doug, roused up the men and get them down here, will you? There's a fire at the mill—we need help to keep it from spreading."

"OK, we'll be there."

He answered automatically before his stunned brain could grasp the full meaning of the words. Then he switched on the brilliant light hanging from a long cord and swung it around the big room, flashing it in the faces of the sleeping loggers. They muttered angrily, shielding their eyes. His words brought them upright in seconds, but he was already ahead of them, pulling on his boots and trousers and racing for the truck. He had the engine roaring when the rest of them emerged.

There were only thirteen besides himself. The married men were down at the Inlet with their families and the other single loggers hadn't yet straggled in from their week-end in the city. He looked around for Norway's bulky shape as they piled into the truck then remembered that the huge Scandinavian had gone down to spend the evening with Lily, the half-breed. Funny he hadn't returned, Doug reflected. Lily was an Indian but she lived with her sister's family and Norway had once remarked that they had strict concepts of morality—too strict, he confessed, to suit his easy-going ideas of romance.

The truck pounced through the night, the big hard wheels jolting over the ruts of the old skid road. After they passed the Larson's house a glow was visible in the sky and the speculative grumbles of the loggers swelled to a chorus of curses.

"Larson luck! ... This makes the seventh damn calamity in six months! ... Yeah, and I'll bet this wasn't no accident either. ..."

Doug's eyes left the road a second to scrutinize the glare-lit face of the man squeezed in beside him.

"What do you mean either?"

The man glanced at him in surprise. "Oh hell, Andrews, we all know that wasn't no accident that wrecked Elmo's hand—the cable was cut."

"How do you know?"

The logger frowned then shrugged. "I forget just who told me but the word has gone around camp. Didn't you hear it?"

"Then you couldn't really call it bad luck, could you, if it's deliberate," said Doug.

As they swung into the road that curved along the Inlet Doug saw that the entire town had turned out for the fire. A fire of any sort was a menace to a small community of frame houses but fire in the Larson Lumber yard meant a loss of livelihood to at least half the population as well.

Luckily there was no wind. The breeze that had ruffled the Sound during the afternoon had died and the flames soared straight into the air, lighting the square glass panes of the office and the sweating faces of the fire-fighters with a garish orange glow. Doug saw that the blaze seemed to be centered near the refuse and sawdust piles but only yards separated it from stacks of resinous fresh-milled lumber.

He pulled to a screaming stop at the end of the piers and the truck disgorged men like a perch spewing forth her young. They raced for the shed where forest-fire fighting equipment was kept and seconds later had joined the group already combating the blaze.

Elsa was on the side lines with a hose filling the fire pumps so that men could get into spots where the hoses wouldn't reach. She was too busy to more than stare at him soberly but after fifteen minutes he paused to wipe his face and cross to her side.

"Looks like it's about licked, Elsa. That shed is a gonner but the rest of it is mostly sawdust. You haven't lost much lumber."

"Thanks to all of Guett's Inlet," she said dryly. "Doug, do something for me—see if you can find Grandfather and see if he's all right. This excitement is bad for him but I couldn't keep him out of it."

Doug moved around the row of wooden buildings, peering into the faces of the bystanders yet knowing that old Sven Larson wouldn't be idly watching his mill burn. He came back and inched around to the other side of the blaze and there he found him. He was directing three of the younger village boys, having them hose down the roof of a shed. His orders were barked out in a crisp incisive voice and Doug grinned. Elsa had no cause to worry.

Then his eyes went beyond the old man to the inside corner where he stood, almost protectively, it seemed. Doug's nostrils twitched. He strode behind Larson and picked up a handful of cotton waste. The reek of kerosene was overpowering.

He was examining it more carefully when it was suddenly snatched from his hand and tossed into the burning sawdust. It blazed up and vanished. The eyes Sven Larson turned on Doug were ice-green and hard.

"Forget you ever saw that, boy!" he ordered.

Storm Damage In Wyoming Valley

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 18 (AP)—Residents of the Wyoming Valley in Pennsylvania's anthracite region today dug away the silt left by storm swollen streams that knocked out two railroad lines and did other widespread damage.

One of the rail lines was disrupted when a bridge was swept away over the Black creek near Nanticoke, Pa. The bridge carried the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad's Sunbury division between Wilkes-Barre and Nanticoke.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad was blocked by a landslide at Hunlock creek, near Shickshinny, Pa.

Pennsylvania officials said at least three days will be required to repair the damage to the Sunbury division tracks which connect with the Delaware and Hudson railroad and the central railroad of New Jersey.

Easton, Pa., Aug. 18 (AP)—Robert S. King, 10 months, strangled when he caught his head between bars of his crib and a mattress, Dr. D. F. Buchman, Northampton county coroner, said. The baby's mother discovered his body yesterday when she went to his room to see if he was still sleeping.

Belleville, Pa., Aug. 18 (AP)—Warren C. C. Rhoads of nearby Rockview prison said today police have concentrated on the Altoona area in their search for a convicted criminal who escaped from the prison Saturday. Rhoads said the prisoner, Wilbert P. Cashman, 34, formerly lived at Altoona.

TAFT-HARTLEY BILL IN FULL FORCE FRIDAY

By MAX HALL
(Associated Press Labor Reporter)

Washington, Aug. 18 (AP)—America moved today into a memorable week in the history of labor-management relations — the week when the last and biggest chunk of the Taft-Hartley law goes into effect.

The big date is Friday, August 22, 60 days after Congress enacted the law over President Truman's protests.

Unions, for the first time under federal law, will be subject to prosecution before the National Labor Relations Board for such practices as coercing employees, refusing to bargain, forcing an employer to pay for work not actually performed, and engaging in jurisdictional strikes and certain kinds of boycotts.

New NLRB Job

Some provisions of the act took effect June 23, but the full weight of the vast policy changes decreed by the Republican-controlled Congress will not be felt until Friday.

The NLRB, which has spent 12 years protecting the rights of workers who want to organize into unions, now will protect — in addition — the rights of workers who don't.

It also will protect the rights of employers.

On Friday the NLRB will split, in effect, into two separate agencies: (1) a five-man board, which becomes a labor court, and (2) the "office of the general counsel," headed by Robert N. Denham.

Questions Up

This office will investigate and prosecute cases before the five-man tribunal, and eventually will have perhaps nine or 10 times as many employees as the tribunal itself.

NLRB regional officials, back at their home cities today after converging in Chicago last week to discuss procedures, prepared to issue some new regulations between now and Friday.

Here are a few of the questions that must be decided either this week or later: 1. How to handle the prosecution when an employer and a union accuse each other of "unfair labor practices"; 2. Whether to rule that the construction industry is in interstate commerce and therefore under the new law; 3. Just what to do about the thousands of old cases already pending; and 4. To what extent the CIO and the AFL themselves — as well as their affiliated unions — must comply with the provisions for filing financial statements and non-Communist affidavits.

Yellowstone National Park, Wyo., Aug. 18, (AP) — Park Superintendent Edmund Rogers said the body of Herbert J. Kline, 47, Altoona, Pa., has been recovered from High Yellowstone Lake where he drowned August 1 and has been shipped to Livingston, Mont. Kline was master mechanic of the Juniata shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad's Altoona works.

Flowers of the tea bush are white and slightly fragrant, but are not used commercially.

Greek Guerrillas Set Up Own Court

Athens, Aug. 18 (AP) — Guerrilla fighters in northern Greece were, by their own account, setting up people's courts in their territory today under a temporary military regime represented as the forerunner of a "Provisional Democratic Government."

Their so-called "Democratic Army" said in a radio broadcast yesterday that these courts, of three members each under a people's commissar, would handle cases calling for sentences of up to five years' imprisonment, while military courts would handle more serious cases.

This report came from the same station that last Friday night broadcast that Communist Gen. Markos Vafiades, Guerrilla commander, had taken up the administration of a "Democratic Government" from his headquarters until a provisional government could be formed with a "Popular National Assembly."

Sally And Georgia Coming To Court

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 18 (AP)—Fandancer Sally Rand and strip-teaser Georgia Sothern were scheduled to appear here today in police court and magistrate William Conway said the "admission is free."

Miss Rand is to answer a disorderly conduct charge brought by Miss Sothern who has charged that Sally and her manager—Georgia's husband—were together in a Springfield hotel room Friday night.

Harry Finkelstein of New York, Sally's manager, and the fan dancer were arrested in Sally's room after Georgia, who is appearing at a Cincinnati night club, signed complaints and obtained warrants from magistrate Conway. Sally and Finkelstein were later freed on $500 bond each.

Sally told a reporter that Finkelstein was in her room to give her medicine prescribed by a physician for heat exhaustion which forced her to cancel her Illinois State Fair side show Wednesday. Magistrate Conway said he issued the warrants because the presence of a man in a woman's hotel room can constitute disorderly conduct.

Used Fats Are Still Badly Needed!

Says the Food Editor of McCall's,
HELEN McCULLY

So many women write to our magazine and ask if they should keep turning in their used cooking fats. Most certainly yes! There is still a shortage—not only in the United States but all over the world. Here is what Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson says: "It is still necessary to conserve every pound of used fat, since the over-all fat supply situation is little better now than it was last year." That's why we American women must keep on saving used fats until the world-wide shortage is over!
